Study Abroad Programs (currently scheduled)

Programs	Applicants	Schedule and Style of Stay	Location	Approx. No. of Students	Credits Acquired	Remarks
STAYS Study Abroad for Yasuda Students	All 2nd year students from the Department of English (mandatory)	About 5 months from Sep. to Jan. Homestay	University of California, Davis (USA) University of Pittsburgh(USA) University of British Columbia(Canada)	35(UCD) 35(Pitt) TBD(UBC)	16	Improving English language skills, understanding American/Canadian culture and society through volunteer activities.
HIBISCUS program Hawaii International Business Tourism and Culture Studies	All 2nd year students from the Department of International Tourism & Business(mandatory)	About 5 months:Aug. - Dec. and Mar. - Jul. Homestay	University of Hawaii at Manoa (USA)	80	16	Learning business English and about tourism and culture, enhancing English language skills, expertise, and cross-culture understanding.
EACLP European and American Culture and Language Program	Any 1st, 2nd or 3rd year student (1st to 5th year for the Department of Pharmacy)	About one month from Feb. to Mar. Homestay	University of Victoria (Canada) Dublin City University (Ireland)	20	2	Learning practical English conversation and about Canadian culture and history.
CCLP Chinese Culture and Language Program	Any university student	About 10 days in Sep. Hotel	TBD (Taiwan)	20	2	Learning Chinese language, calligraphy, culture and history.
Taiwan Calligraphy Field Study Program	Any university student from the Department of Calligraphy and the Graduate School of Letters	About 5 days in Feb.	National Taiwan University of Arts	20	-	Learning about calligraphy and its culture in Taiwan and develop a deeper understanding of calligraphy and an international perspective.
SEEC Seminar for English and Education in an International Context	Any 1st, 2nd or 3rd year student from the Department of Primary Education and Early Childhood Education and Care	About one month from Feb. to Mar. Homestay	University of Victoria (Canada)	20	2	Learning English and participating in several off-campus activities, visiting local schools and joining some workshops to better understand the Canadian educational system.
G. LABOS Global/Greater Language And Business Overseas Seminar	Any university student	About one month from Aug. to Sep. Dormitory stay	University of Washington (USA)	20	2	Learning high-level business knowledge, visiting some companies and government administrative organizations, and conducting research to be a global professionals.
IEAP International Exchange And Practice	Any 1st and 2nd year student from the Department of Nursing	About one month in Mar. Homestay	University of Alberta (Canada)	20	2	Learning English, visiting nursing facilities, and associating with Canadian nursing students to understand the differences in nursing/medical fields between Canada and Japan.
International Architectural Field Study	Any 1st, 2nd or 3rd year student from the Department of Architecture (once every three years)	About 10 days in Sep.	Italy	20	2	Learning about architectural design, planning, and history by visiting historic buildings in Italy, and deepening understanding of architecture and awareness of future careers through these experiences.